Slide seminar 1 - pancreas

Professor Fiona Campbell
Consultant Gastrointestinal Pathologist
Royal Liverpool University Hospital
F.Campbell@liverpool.ac.uk

Sarajevo, November 2015
• 70-year-old male. Abdominal pain. CT bulky head of pancreas. No discrete mass.

• Whipple’s resection

• Representative H&E sections of whole of pancreas
• Whipple’s resection
• 2.5cm cystic and solid lesion near ampulla
• Representative H&E sections of the lesion
Slide 4

- 70-year-old female. Jaundice. CT-mass head of pancreas.
- Whipple’s resection
- Poorly-defined 4cm solid mass in pancreas
- Representative H&E sections of the lesion
Case 7

- Whipple’s resection
- Well-circumscribed, 6cm diameter, solid lesion, pushing margin, areas of haemorrhage
- Representative H&E sections of the lesion