Slide seminar 2 - pancreas

Professor Fiona Campbell
Consultant Gastrointestinal Pathologist
Royal Liverpool University Hospital
F.Campbell@liverpool.ac.uk
Slide 2

- Distal pancreatectomy
- Well-defined cystic lesion containing watery fluid
- Representative H&E sections of the lesion
Slide 3

- 60-year-old female. Weight loss. CT - 8cm diameter cystic lesion in tail of pancreas.

- Distal pancreatectomy. Well-defined, thick-walled cyst containing cloudy fluid

- Representative H&E sections of the lesion
Slide 1

• 66-year-old male. Abdominal pain. CT – cystic lesion in head of pancreas. FNA - mucinous tumour.
• Whipple’s resection
• Multicystic lesion in head of pancreas
• Representative H&E sections of the lesion
• 33-year-old female. Asymptomatic. CT – 3cm lesion in body of pancreas.
• Distal pancreatectomy
• Well-circumscribed 3cm diameter solid lesion
• Representative H&E sections of the lesion